Teaching & Advising

Curricular Leadership

BizComm, University of Louisville (AY 2012-present)

- Established UofL as a leader in business communication education through teaching workshops, consulting with other business schools, publishing pedagogical articles, and maintaining a website for dissemination of information
- Developed and championed an innovative competency-based curriculum that incorporates a Communication across the Curriculum/Communication in the Discipline (CXC/CID) approach, including creating easy-to-use tools for consistent business communication assessment across the curriculum

- Recruited and mentored term faculty
- Managed BizComm Coaching service (dedicated BizComm writing/speaking center), including supervising operations and recruiting and mentoring graduate assistants

Business & Professional Communication, University of Nebraska (AY 2009-2011)

- Provided faculty oversight for a multi-section course enrolling 1,200+ students annually and requiring an instructional staff of ~50 (2 assistant directors, 9 GTA/adjunct instructors, 40 undergraduate instructional assistants)
- Collaborated with College of Business Administration faculty and solicited input from CBA student council, alumni, and local business professionals to overhaul 30+ year-old curriculum to reflect current business communication needs and standards
- Led the development of an online version of the course that enabled online degree completion for several programs across campus and generated a significant revenue stream for the department
