

Sheila A. Johnston, CPA/PFS, CFP

Professional Experience

- 1991-Present, Tenured Faculty Member of the College of Business, University of Louisville, Louisville, KY
- 1994-Present, Tax, Retirement, and Financial Planning Consultant

Education, Certifications, and Licenses

- University of Cincinnati, MS in Taxation, 1992
- University of Louisville, MBA, 1989
- Western Kentucky University, BS in Accounting, 1976
- Personal Financial Specialist (PFS), 2005
- Certified Financial Planner (CFP), 1993
- Certified Public Accountant (CPA), 1978

Summary of Current Work Experience

- Over twenty years of experience in university teaching in the accounting and tax area to a diverse group of students
- Over fifteen years of experience in providing tax, retirement, and financial planning services for individuals
- Over ten years of experience in developing and providing educational retirement workshops for the University of Louisville employees

Summary of Past Work Experience

- Over ten years of experience in developing and providing educational workshops for employees of various organizations on topics that includes retirement, tax, financial planning and accounting issues
- Eleven years of experience in public accounting including tax preparation and auditing
- Two years of experience in corporate domestic/international tax area
- One year experience in working on IRS corporate tax audit