- The position provides meaningful, challenging work that benefits the employer’s goals and the career interests of the student.
- Compensation includes a suggested $2,275 monthly salary and coverage by the employer’s workers’ compensation insurance.

INTERNSHIP STUDENT GUIDELINES

- Interns bring what they learn in the classroom directly to the job, making them more valuable with each 5-week course in our accelerated programs. Working with a UofL intern gives you a direct insight into the latest practices and technology. Our MSBA students learn Python, R, SQL, advanced data analysis techniques, and will be SAS-certified upon graduation.
- They function as conventional employees during normal work hours, subject to company standards for work performance, behavior, and appearance.
- Students understand the internship comes with no guarantee of subsequent full-time employment, and any negotiation for another position is the responsibility of the student and the company.
- Students understand failure to complete the internship due to dismissal by employer may result in loss of course credit or a failing grade for the internship.
