AAS TO BBA

University of Louisville College of Business BBA Program

The Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) provides exposure to a broad survey of business topics, helping you develop a strong foundation for a successful career within the business community. While gaining essential knowledge from our business core courses, you'll also have the opportunity (if available) to use elective hours to craft a minor that aligns with your career interests and goals from within or outside of the business school. This degree is presented both online and on-campus.
